Creating an APA Style Citation for an Article from a Law Review in WestLaw Next

If you copy/paste the generated citation from WestLaw Next, you get this:

Scott Warner, Pete Land, Kendra Berner. The U.S. Supreme Court's Decision in Fisher v. University of Texas at Austin: What It Tells Us (and Doesn't Tell Us) About the Consideration of Race in College and University Admissions and Other Contexts. Fed. Law., August 2013, at 48

That's not in APA format, so you'll need to construct it on your own.

Here is the APA model:

Author, F.M., Author, F.M., & Author, F.M. (Publication year). Article Title. Journal Title, Volume(Issue), page numbers. doi:XX.XXXXX or Retrieved from journal URL.

Since we see no doi on the article, Google the name of the journal/law review to find the URL of the journal’s home page. (You will never use the URL of the database.)

Here is the resulting citation:

See the note in the image above regarding page numbers.
